

THE BOURBON NEWS

SWIFT CHAMP, EDITOR AND OWNER.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

The pumpkin pie is out of sight,
It's cut its little dash;
The apples in the bowl are low—
The turkey's in the hash.
Our appetites are slightly dulled,
But though we now abstain,
When Christmas dinner comes around,
We'll overeat again!

—Jack Appleton.

EXECUTOR'S SALE.—Attention is called to the advertisement in an other column of the executor's sale, on Tuesday, Dec. 9, of stock, crop, implements, etc., of C. Alexander, deceased. The sale will take place on the farm, near Hutchison. At this sale will be offered Mrs. Alexander's fine carriage and horses, and other horses.

To be satisfied with your good things for Christmas, you must buy at Prather's. (5dec6t)

SMOKE the Stoner cigar. Not made by the trust. None better.

LUNCH ROOM.—Geo. H. Crosdale will on Monday, December, 8th, open up a commodious, first-class Lunch Room adjoining his restaurant, in the room property lately vacated by Frank Prather, Grocer. The dining room and Lunch Room will be connected by folding doors, and it is the aim and purpose of Mr.
Crosdale to give Paris such an establishment as will meet the general demands of the public in his line. He is an up-to-date hustler, attends strictly to business and is conducting a Cafe that is seldom found in small cities and his enterprising and progressive efforts should be encouraged by a liberal patronage. Will Grosche will be in charge of the Lunch Counter. (1t)
